

Profiles of new ministers

Minister of Interior

A brigadier general in the Jordan Armed Forces-Arab Army (JAF), Faraiah was director of operations at the National Centre for Security and Crisis Management's crisis cell. He graduated from Mutah University/military branch.

Mazen Faraiah

Minister of State for Media Affairs

Born in 1961 in Hebron, Dudin obtained his BSc in Architecture from the University of Jordan in 1985. He served as a senator, as well as a board member in Al Eqbal Investment Company, among others.

Sakher Dudin

Minister of Agriculture

Hneifat served as Tafileh mayor from 2007 to 2011. He served as project director at the Labour Ministry, working on initiatives to mitigate poverty and unemployment. Hneifat received the Order of Independence of the Third Class for implementing development projects in Tafileh.

Khaled Hneifat

Minister of Transport

Born in 1955 in Irbid, Azaizeh holds a bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from Syria. He served as Social Development Minister in 2017 and in 2012. He also was a member of the Senate for several times. He was a member of the board of trustees of the Hashemite Fund for the Reconstruction of Al Aqsa and the Dome of Rock. He also worked as director general of the Palestinian Affairs Department. He also received the Independence Order of the First Class in 2007.

Wajih Azaizeh

Minister of Water and Irrigation

Born in 1956, Najjar obtained his bachelor's degree in Civil Engineering from Russia in 1982, and a master's degree in Environmental Engineering from the UK in 1988. Najjar also served as water minister. He was also a senate member. Najjar also assumed several posts, including serving as engineer in a number of Water Authority of Jordan's directorates.

Mohammad Najjar